Subhashita-August:

ईशाबास्यमिदं सर्वं यक्तिंञच जगत्यां जगत् । तेनत्यक्तेन भुजीथा मा गृधः कस्यश्चिद्धनम् (ईशोपनिषद्)

जड-चेतन प्राणियों वाली यह समस्त सृष्टि परमात्मा से व्याप्त है। मनुष्य इसके पदार्थों का आवश्यकतानुसार भोग करे, परंतु यह सब मेरा नहीं है के भाव के साथ उनका संग्रह न करे।

O men! The entire universe is pervaded by God! Enjoy all of nature as gifts from God, but with a spirit of renunciation! Do not be attached to them and do not convert the wealth of others. Control greed!

Subhashita-September:

नेयं स्वर्णपुरी लंका रोचते मम लक्ष्मण । जननी जन्मभूमिश्च स्वर्गादिप गरीयसी ।।

हे लक्ष्मण । यह स्वर्णपुरी लंका मुझे(अब) अच्छी नहीं लगती । माँ और मातृभूमि स्वर्ग से भी बडे होते है ।

Hey Lakshman! This Lanka, which is made of gold, does not please me. Mother and motherland are greater than even heaven.

Amrutvachan-August:

Sri Guruji says: our culture has always held high the purity of personal character. We have never called a person a philosopher who is selfish or given to various vices like wine, woman and gold. For us, the philosopher is, more than everything else, a man of absolute purity and austerity of character. Right from the ancient seers down to the great personalities of modern times, all those whom we consider as standard-bearers of our philosophy and culture have been wholly pure - their thought, word and deed all in tune with the highest truths. Such men alone have been the real glowing symbols of our national heritage.

Swami Vivekananda says: The Vedanta teaches men to have faith in themselves first. As certain religions of the world say that a man who does not believe in a personal God outside of himself is an atheist, so the Vedanta says, a man who does not believe in himself is an atheist.

Amrutvachan-September:

Swami Vivekananda says: Mark me, then and then alone you are a Hindu when the very name sends through you a galvanic shock of strength. Then and then alone you are a Hindu when every man who bears the name, from any country, speaking our language or any other language, becomes at once the nearest and the dearest to you. Then and then alone you are a Hindu when the distress of anyone bearing that name comes to your heart and makes you feel as if your own son were in distress. Then and then alone you are a Hindu when you will be ready to bear everything for them.

Param pujaniya Doctor Ji Says: Ours is the mission to organise the entire Hindu society. No section of it, can we afford to neglect. However, high or low an individual may consider himself to be, our regard for every Hindu shall always be equally full of love and affection. To despise any Hindu as low is a nothing short of a sin.

Subhashita-October:

पुष्पिण्यौ चरतो जंघे भूष्णुरात्मा फलग्रहिः । शेरेस्य सर्वे पाप्मानः श्रमेण प्रपथे हताः ।।

निरंतर चलने वाले की जांघाएं पुष्पित होती है, अर्थात उस वृक्ष की शाखाओं-उपशाखाओं की भांति होती है जिन पर सुगंधित एवं फलीभूत होने वाले फूल लगते है, और जिसका शरीर बढ़ते हुए वृक्ष की भांति फलों से पूरित होता है, अर्थात वह भी फलग्रहण करता है। प्रकृष्ट मार्गों पर श्रम के साथ चलते हुए उसके समस्त पाप नष्ट होकर सो जाते हैं, अर्थात निष्प्रभावी हो जाते है। अतः तुम चलते ही रहो (विचरण हीं करते रहो)।

Those who remain engaged in work grow and inspire others, their work bears fruit. By treading on the path shown to them by their Guru they subdue any demerits in their work and render them ineffective. Hence keep walking continuously remain active.

Subhashita-November:

ఉపకారికి నుపకారము విపరీతము గాదు సేయ, వివరింపంగా నపకారికి నుపకారము నెపమెన్నక చేయువాడు నేర్పరి సుమతీ! లోకము ఉపకారము చేసే వానికి (పత్యుపకారము చేయుట సామాన్యమే. దీంట్లో ఎలాంటి విశేషము లేదు. అయితే అపకారికి కూడా అతని తప్పులు క్షమించి ఉపకారము చేసేవాడే ఉత్తముడు.

Upakaariki nupakaaramu Vipareethamu gaadu seya vivarimpangaa Napakaariki nupakaaramu Nepamennaka seyuvaadu nerpari sumathee|| Its not strange to help those who have once helped us. He who provide help without an excuse to those who have denied help is indeed a learned man.

Amrutvachan-October:

Param pujaniya Doctor Ji Says: The Hindus must be made to feel intensely that they are one cohesive society. The concept of one Nationhood must be deeply engraved in their hearts. They must love one another and Share the common goal of raising up our country. This is the only way, the only positive and enduring way of national resurrection and this is what the Sangh is doing.

Swami Vivekananda says: And if you read the lives of great workers which the world has produced, you will find that they were wonderfully calm men. Nothing, as it were, could throw them off their balance. That is why the man who becomes angry never does a great amount of work, and the man whom nothing can make angry accomplishes so much. The man who gives way to anger,or hatred or any other passion, cannot work; he only breaks himself into pieces, and does nothing practical. It is the calm, forgiving, equable well-balanced mind that does the greatest amount of work.

Amrutvachan-November:

Sri Guruji says: The discipline nurtured in the Sangh is the spontaneous self-restraint of a cultured people. It is a discipline wherein each one feels that he has a higher duty to the nation and that his personal and family wants can wait. He prepares himself to respond to that higher call in a well-ordered, co-ordinated manner. It is the type of discipline where all will pool together their intelligence, feelings, physical energies and their material possessions in the greater cause of national welfare.

Sri Guruji says: The very name 'Bharat' denotes that this is our mother. In our cultural tradition, the respectful way of calling a woman is by her child's name. To call a lady as the wife of Mr. so-and-so or as Mrs. so-and-so is the Western way. We say, "She is Ramu's mother". So also is the case with the name 'Bharat' for our motherland. Bharata is an elder brother of ours, born long long before us. He was a noble, virtuous and victorious king and a shining model of Hindu manhood. When a woman has more than one child, we call her by the name of her eldest or the most well known among her children. Bharata was well known and this land was called as his mother, Bharat, the mother of all Hindus.

Subhashita-December:

यस्य नास्ति स्वयं प्रज्ञा शास्त्रं तस्य करोती किम् । लोचनाभ्यां विहीनस्य दर्पणः किं करिष्यति ।। जिसे स्वयं की प्रज्ञा (तेज बुद्धि) नही उसे शास्त्र किस काम का ? अंधे मनुष्य को दर्पण किस काम का ?

For a person, who does not have intelligence, books are of no use. Same as mirror is of no use for a blind man.

Subhashita-January:

विद्यां ददाति विनयं विनयाद् याति पात्रताम् । पात्रत्वात् धनमाप्नोति धनात् धर्मं ततः सुखम् ।।

विद्या विनय देती है, विनय से पात्रता, पात्रता से धन, धन से धर्म और धर्म से सुख प्राप्त होता है।

Knowledge provides humility, humility provides eligibility, eligibility leads to affluence, affluence to dharma and dharma leads to happiness.

Amrutvachan-December:

Sri Guruji says: Some may feel that all people are not likely to agree to our concept of Hindu Rashtra. But it is immaterial whether some people accept or reject the truth we propound. Our ideas should be clear and our faith in them unswerving. Then alone will the people be persuaded to accept the truth. I am confident that, ultimately, people will be convinced. If, in our respective fields, we can explain our ideas clearly and consistently to more and more people, they will gradually join our ranks and come to appreciate our thought. But, if we approach people with weakness lurking in our own hearts and talk to them in a lukewarm manner, then, everything will come to an end; and it will be an additional obstacle in the path of our ideal nstead of being a strong support, which we expect t to be.

Swami Vivekananda says: Let us therefore take up a great ideal and give up our whole life to it. Let this be our determination, and may He, the Lord, who "comes again and again for the salvation of His own people", to quote from our scriptures — may the great Krishna bless us and lead us all to the fulfilment of our aims!

Amrutvachan-January:

Pandit Deen Dayal Upadhyay Says: It is essential that we think about our national identity. Without this identity there is no meaning of independence, nor can independence become the instrument of progress and happiness. As long as we are unaware of our national identity, we cannot recognise or develop all our potentialities. Under alien rule this identity is suppressed. That is why nations wish to remain independent so that they can progress according to their natural bent and can experience happiness in their endeavour. Nature is powerful. An attempt to go against nature or to disregard her leads to troubles. The natural instincts cannot be disregarded but it is possible to elevate this nature to the level of culture. Psychology tells us how by suppression of various natural instincts different mental disorders ensue. Such a person remains restless and dejected. His abilities slowly deteriorate, and become perverted. The Nation too, like the individual, falls a prey to numerous ills when its natural instincts are disregarded. The basic cause of the problems facing Bharat is the neglect of its national identity.

Sri Guruji says: As human life evolves, the concept of mother also takes a wider and more sublime form. When man looks around with his discerning intellect, He sees so many other things to which he owes a debt of gratitude. He begins to look upon them also as mother. He sees the rivers, which give him food and water. He calls them mother. Once he outgrows the use of his mother's milk, he sees the cow, which feeds him with her milk throughout his life. He calls her mother-cow. And then he reaches the state of understanding that it is the mother soil which nourishes him, protects him and takes him in her bosom after he breathes his last. He becomes conscious that she is his great mother. Thus to look upon one's land of birth as mother is a sign of a high state of human evolution. The Vedas declare: The Earth is my mother, I am her child.

धृतिः क्षमा दमोऽस्तेयं शौचिमिन्द्रियनिग्रहः

धीर्विद्या सत्यमक्रोधो दशकं धर्मलक्षणम् ।। (मनुस्मृति ६.९२)

धैर्य, क्षमा, संयम, चोरी न करना, शौच (स्वच्छता), इन्द्रियों को वश में रखना, बुद्धि, विद्या, सत्य और क्रोध न करना, ये दस धर्म के लक्षण है।

Patience, Withstanding, restraint, non-stealing, cleanliness, control overs senses, intelligence, knowledge, truthfulness and not being angered are ten attributes of dharma.

Subhashita-March:

विद्वत्वं च नृपत्वं च न एव तुल्ये कदाचन् ।
स्वदेशे पूज्यते राजा विद्वान् सर्वत्र पूज्यते ।।
विद्वता और राज्य अतुलनीय है, राजा को तो अपने राज्य में
ही सम्मान मिलता है पर विद्वान का सर्वत्र सम्मान होता है । Erudition and kingship are incomparable. King is respected only in his kingdom while erudite people are respected everywhere.

Amrutvachan-February:

Sri Guruji says: Man has realised, from his experience, that the success of a great venture, is the result of putting together many small efforts, to produce a powerful force. Similarly, success is secured, even in a work considered to be very difficult, when millions of people gather for an hour every day, in a disciplined and dedicated manner.

Sri Guruji says: The Sangh has therefore evolved a course of samskaras wherein the mind, intellect and body of an individual are trained so as to make him a living limb of the great corporate body of society. In a human body, for instance, there are so many limbs and in each limb, millions of cells. Each cell feels its identity with the entire body and is ever ready to sacrifice itself for the sake of the health and growth of the body. In fact, it is the self-immolation of millions of such cells that release the energy for every bodily activity.

Amrutvachan-March:

Swami Vivekananda says: Those that want to help mankind must take their own pleasure and pain, name and fame, and all sorts of interests, and make a bundle of them and throw them into the sea, and then come to the Lord. This is what all the Masters said and did.

Swami Vivekananda says: Even the greatest fool can accomplish a task if it be in his heart. But the intelligent man is he who can convert every work into one that suits his taste. No work is petty. Everything in this world is like a banyan-seed, which, though appearing tiny as a mustard-seed, has yet the gigantic banyan tree latent within it. He indeed is intelligent who notices this and succeeds in making all work truly great.
